ADMISSION.

All candidates for admission must present satisfactory testimonials of good moral character; and, if from other Colleges, of unexceptionable standing.

Candidates for the Freshman Class are examined in the following books.

GREEK.

Xenophon's Anabasis, five books; Homer's Iliad, three books,* Greek Grammar, including Prosody.

LATIN.

The whole of Virgil; Cicero's Select Orations; Sallust; Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, including Prosody; Writing Latin.

MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic; Chase's Algebra, through Equations of the First Degree.

ENGLISH.

English Grammar; Ancient and Modern Geography.

Candidates for advanced standing, in addition to the above studies, are examined in the studies that have been pursued by the class which they propose to enter, or in others equivalent to them.

The times for examination are the Tuesday before Commencement, and the close of the vacation immediately following.

Persons who desire to attend the lectures and recitations of particular departments only, may have that privilege—provided, they are prepared to enter upon the studies of such departments, and become subject to the laws of College, as other students, so far as may be designated by the Faculty.

Note.—It is very important that the candidates for admission should be thoroughly prepared, particularly in elementary knowledge. The deficiency of many in Greek, Latin, and English Grammar, in Prosody, Latin Composition, Arithmetic, and Geography, makes it necessary to require especial attention to these branches of the preparatory course.

* Felton's Greek Reader is accepted as an equivalent to these requisitions in Greek; or Jacobs', Colton's, Owen's, Spencer's Greek Reader, with the Four Gospels.

A Biblical Exercise is attended by all the classes on Monday morning.

Occasional lectures are delivered by the President to the Senior class, on subjects relating to the studies of the year.

Courses of lectures are also delivered during the year :—

By Professor YOUNG, on Natural Philosophy and Astronomy, to the Juniors.
By Professor HUBBARD, on Chemistry and Geology, to the Seniors, and on Mineralogy, to the Juniors.
By Professor LONG, on Intellectual Philosophy, to the Seniors.
By Professor BROWN, on Rhetoric and Belles Lettres, to the Seniors and Juniors.
By Professor SANBORN, on History, to the Sophomores.
By Professor NOYES, on Theology and Moral Philosophy, to the Seniors and Juniors.
By Professor PEASLEE, on Anatomy and Physiology, to the Seniors.

EXAMINATIONS.

There are two Public Examinations of the several classes, one at the close of the Fall Term, and the other immediately before Commencement. Each Examination is conducted in the presence, and under the direction of a committee of gentlemen of education, invited by the Faculty to attend for that purpose. The committees are expected, at the close of the examination, to express their judgment upon the merits of each student, and to recommend that he be advanced or degraded, as in their opinion he may deserve.

The following Gentlemen were the Committees for the Academical year 1855-6:

NOVEMBER EXAMINATION, 1855.

Allen H. Weld, Esq., West Lebanon.
James K. Colby, Esq., St. Johnsbury, Vt.
Rev. Robert F. Lawrence, Claremont.

JULY EXAMINATION, 1856.

Rev. E. I. Carpenter, Littleton.
Rev. George W. Blagden, D. D., Boston, Ms.
Caleb Emery, Esq., Boston, Ms.
Gilbert Edwin Hood, Esq., Thetford, Vt.
Hon. Harry Hibbard, Bath.
Rev. Hiram Carleton, Barnstable, Ms.

LIBRARIES.

There are three Libraries accessible to the students beside the Medical Library, and the Library of the Northern Academy of Arts and Sciences. An annual appropriation is made for the increase of the College Library. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies are increased by annual donations from each.

The number of books in the different Libraries connected with the College, is as follows:—

College Library, (exclusive of pamphlets) about	14,242
Social Friends' Library, - - -	7,433
United Fraternity's Library, - - -	7,418
Society of Inquiry's Library, - - -	500
Philotechnic Society's Library, (Chandler School,)	325
Medical Library, about - - -	1,200
Library of the Northern Academy, about - -	1,300
Total, - - - - -	32,418

APPARATUS.

In addition to the usual Apparatus for illustrating the several branches of Physical Science, the College is furnished with the best instruments now used in Practical Surveying and Engineering.

THE SHATTUCK OBSERVATORY.

Through the munificence of the late George C. Shattuck, LL. D., of Boston, an elegant building has been erected for an Astronomical Observatory, and furnished with the requisite Instruments and Books.

MINERALOGICAL CABINET.

The Hall Cabinet, presented by the late Prof. Frederick Hall, LL. D., of Washington City, contains a large collection of specimens of rocks, minerals, and fossils, both American and foreign, sufficient for extensive illustration in Mineralogy and Geology.

The instruction in Geology is aided by a series of well-executed drawings on a large scale.

The Chemical Laboratory is amply furnished with Apparatus and Chemicals for the illustration of the Lectures in that Department.

FUNDS FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF INDIGENT STUDENTS.

Indigent students, belonging to New Hampshire, are assisted, in respect to tuition, by funds derived from the income of certain lands granted by the State.

Students, preparing for the Ministry, receive appropriations from funds given for their particular benefit.

These several funds now yield an income of about seven hundred dollars, which is distributed according to the necessities of students, in sums varying from twelve to forty-two dollars.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates of this or other Colleges, desirous of pursuing their studies in Hanover, are allowed, as Resident Graduates, to attend the Public Lectures of the College; and to use the Library and Scientific Collections, subject to such rules as the Faculty may establish.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

The Degree of Master of Arts is conferred, in course, on any Bachelor of three or more years' standing, on the payment of the usual fee. The fee is five dollars, payable in advance. Application should be made to the President or to the Treasurer as early as the day before Commencement.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, - - - -	$42,00
Room-rent, - -	from 6,00 to 12,00
Board, from $1,50 to $2,50 per week; for 39 weeks, -	" 58,50 to 97,50

Students, whose circumstances render it necessary for them to take schools in the winter, are permitted to be absent fourteen weeks from the close of the Fall Term.

CHANDLER SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL.

This department of instruction was established by a resolution of the Trustees, in acceptance of the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, bequeathed to them, in trust, by Abiel Chandler, Esq., late of Walpole, N. H., and formerly of Boston, Ms.

Mr. Chandler gives and devises the above named sum to the Trustees of the College, "to carefully and prudently invest or fund the principal sum, and faithfully apply and appropriate the income and interest thereof for the establishment and support of a permanent department or school of instruction in the College, in the practical and useful arts of life, comprised chiefly in the branches of Mechanics and Civil Engineering, the Invention and Manufacture of Machinery, Carpentry, Masonry, Architecture, and Drawing, the Investigation of the Properties and Uses of the Materials employed in the Arts, the Modern Languages, and English Literature, together with Book-keeping, and such other branches of knowledge as may best qualify young persons for the duties and employments of active life."

ADMISSION.

All candidates for admission must present satisfactory testimonials of good moral character; be fourteen years of age; and, for admission to the Junior year, be examined in Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, English Grammar and Arithmetic, and Geography; and for advanced standing, in the studies which the class have pursued in addition, or a full and satisfactory equivalent.

The School is open to a limited number of indigent and worthy students for gratuitous instruction.

ENGINEERING.	Application of Mechanics and Physics; Mathematical Geography and Astronomy, Theory and Practice; Lectures; Civil Engineering, Field Work; Practical Geology.

RESIDENT GRADUATES

Will be instructed in the following advanced subjects, through an additional course of one or two years.

Analytical Chemistry; Mining Geology; Analytical Geometry and Calculus; Analytical and Celestial Mechanics; Application of Mechanics to Carpentry and Masonry continued; Mechanical Agents; Geodesy; Practical Astronomy; The Arts of Design with reference to their application to the Useful Arts.

LECTURES.

Lectures will be given by the Professors in addition to the above, during the different years of the course, on Political Economy, Didactics, History, English and General Literature. Also, the students of the Chandler School may attend any of the College Lectures that do not interfere with the regular exercises of their own department; and the Lectures of the School are open, on the same conditions, to the College students.

None are admitted for less than TWO terms. Those completing the regular course of three years will be entitled to the degree of Bachelor in Science, on passing a satisfactory examination. For a less term the student will be entitled to a certificate of his standing and proficiency.

Those wishing further information respecting the Chandler Scientific School, may address John S. Woodman, A. M.

TUITION.

In all cases payable IN ADVANCE at the beginning of each Term.

$10.00 a term, or per year, - - $30.00

The Terms, Vacations, and Examinations are the same with those in the College, for which see the College Calendar.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

LECTURES.

The Annual Course of Medical Lectures begins on the Thursday succeeding Commencement, and continues fourteen weeks. The Fee for the Course is Fifty Dollars, which also entitles to the use of the Library. The Students have free access to the Anatomical Museum, to the Cabinet of Materia Medica and Medical Botany, and to the extensive Cabinet of Mineralogy and Geology. Surgical operations are performed before the class gratuitously.

GRADUATION.

Each Candidate for the Degree of M. D. must be twenty-one years of age; must possess a good moral character, an acquaintance with Natural and Experimental Philosophy, and a knowledge of the principles and construction of the Latin Language; must have studied Medicine three full years, with some regular practitioner; must have attended two courses of Public Lectures in all the branches of the profession, at a regularly organized Medical Institution, one of which courses shall have been attended at this Institution; must have passed a successful private examination before the Medical Faculty; and must have prepared to read and defend, in their presence, an acceptable dissertation on some Medical subject.

The Graduating Expenses are Eighteen dollars.

Those wishing further information respecting the "New Hampshire Medical Institution," may address E. R. Peaslee, M. D., Secretary of the Medical Faculty, or any one of the Professors.
